MESSAGE from the RABBI

As our neighbor here in Palm Beach, you likely enjoy the relaxation and beauty of the island as much as we do.

My wife Hindel and I try to uncover the spiritual beauty, too, in all that we see and experience, striving to live purposefully and meaningfully.

Judaism teaches us that the truest forms of beauty and pleasure are when we savor the fine things in life with the intention of serving G-d with them.

That is why, along with the quiet reflection that comes with a weekend, we have implemented a new and improved Caffeine for the Soul class for women on Saturday mornings.

It's also why, along with the enjoyment we Jews get from stimulating the mind, we are offering a brand new flagship series from JLI (the Jewish Learning Institute) that offers a professional, perfect blend of classic texts, vibrant visual aids, and lively interactive discussion that explore the teachings of the Torah like never before on our Island.

And it's also why, along with children's natural enjoyment and need for creative play, we are once again providing the Gary & Mona Davis Daled Arts for boys and girls, where they can get this necessary play and feed their souls too with rich projects and activities that promote Jewish values and living.

Here at The Chabad House, we know that pleasure and purpose are both hardwired into the human condition, and that they are not mutually exclusive.

Our various programs strive to make that which is pleasurable purposeful and that which is meaningful pleasurable.

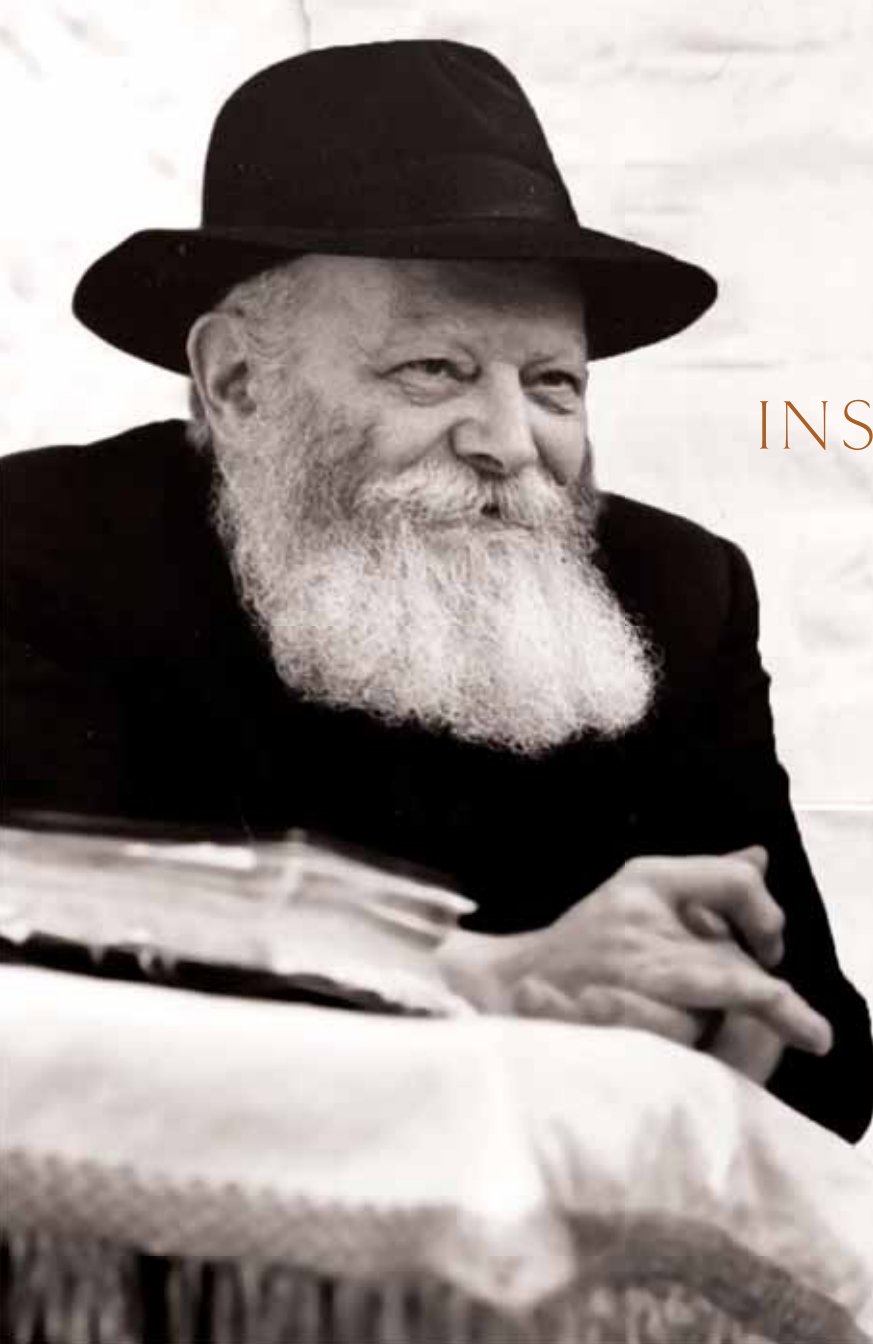

We hope you take advantage of these stellar offerings, including our annual programming like Chanukah on Worth, the Palm Beach Rosh Chodesh Society, and Kabbalah on Worth. Finding out how you can take advantage of all that Chabad has to offer is as effortless as turning the page.

Looking forward to greeting you personally and exploring this wholesome beauty together!

Warmly,

RABBI ZALMAN LEVITIN

OUR INSPIRATION

The Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of righteous memory (1902-1994), is the seventh leader in the Chabad-Lubavitch dynasty and the most influential Jewish personality of modern times.

Known for his hallmark teachings of unconditional love for every Jew, the Rebbe serves as an unwavering inspiration for all that we do.

SHABBOS

Keep the Shabbos and it will keep you. Jews have experienced this truth for thousands of years. Disconnect from the workweek and see for yourself.

Weekly Shabbos services at Chabad invite participants to experience prayer in a holy and inviting atmosphere. Services are followed by Shabbos dinner on Friday nights and Kiddush lunch on Shabbos mornings, where we connect with fellow Jews and appreciate words of inspiration from Rabbi Levitin and guest lecturers.

HOLIDAYS

ROSH HASHANAH

Rosh Hashanah services are lively and engaging, spiced with familiar tunes and insightful explanations, helping us to acknowledge the centrality of G-d in our lives. Partake in elegant and delectable community meals and experience the beauty of the many customs of the holiday including shofar-blowing, and Tashlich at the beach.

YOM KIPPUR

Before we make amends with Him, G-d asks us to first make amends with family and friends. Allow The Chabad House to provide direction and inspiration at Yom Kippur services beginning with Kol Nidrei and concluding with Ne'ilah, the closing prayers. A complimentary break-the-fast meal will follow.

SIMCHAS BAIS HASHOEVA SUKKOS DINNER

On Sukkos, we affirm that our security comes from G-d's Will and so we celebrate our bond with Him as we sit inside the sukkah hut. Join us on the first night of Sukkos inside the spacious Chabad House sukkah for a delicious Yom Tov dinner and Simchas Bais Hashoeva with singing, dancing, and a farbrengen. Every Jewish festival is celebrated with joy. Often there are additional emotions added to the mix: awe on Rosh Hashanah, regret on Yom Kippur, freedom from oppression on Passover. But the holiday of Sukkot is pure joy. One of the reasons is in commemoration of the celebration accompanying the water libation ceremony on Sukkot in Temple times, also known as Simchas Bais Hashoeva.

SIMCHAS TORAH

On Simchas Torah we dance with the Torah closed, because Torah knowledge is not the focus of the day, rather the Torah belongs equally to every Jew regardless of intellect. Celebrate this belief at Rabbi Zalman Levitin's annual Simchas Torah birthday bash and participate in the extraordinary joy and continuous dancing until it literally spills into the streets!

DEDICATION

Chanukah on Worth is dedicated in loving memory of Nosson Deitsch, beloved cousin of Rabbi Zalman and Hindel.

Nosson was tragically taken from us at the age of 21. We feel privileged for the times his passion for studying Torah and helping others, coupled with a sharp sense of humor, brought new life to Chabad during his visits for Shabbos and Chanukah on Worth.

CHANUKAH ON WORTH

Sunday, December 29

5:30 p.m.

The community-wide Chanukah on Worth is on and better than ever! Town council members and other dignitaries will light the Menorah on the last night of Chanukah at Town Hall Square. This year's celebration will feature a parachute gelt drop with Fire-Rescue trucks, DJ Adam Lipson, and the Victoria Circus high wire, life-size robot transformer and trampoline comedy act. Plus, enjoy an exquisite full-service buffet, vegan station, photo booth, and kids craft a "ten mitzvah campaign" T-shirt for the whole family. Finally, the Palm Beach Jewish Children's Choir will interact with the audience in their presentation, "Light up the Street!"

CHANUKAH AT PUBLIX

Tuesday, December 24

PURIM IN THE PALACE

*Thursday, March 10
5:30 p.m.*

Hear ye! Hear ye! It's a royal Purim celebration and you are invited. Hear the enchanting Purim story with the king and queen, savor exotic wines at a magnificent feast, and delight in the visit of the palace court jester Marc Weiner, a world-renowned comedian, and television producer, and voice actor for his show which ran on Nickelodeon. Then craft a Purim mask and pose for royal family portraits. As is the custom of the holiday, send shalach manos to a fellow Jew, give charity, and dance at the Purim ball.

PESACH SEDERS

Wednesday, April 8 &

Thursday, April 9

7:30 p.m.

The eight-day Pesach holiday celebrates our exodus from Egyptian slavery and the birth of the Jewish nation. Pesach is rich with traditions that help us achieve personal freedom in our lives. Experience those traditions at Chabad's luxurious Pesach Seders with Chassidic insights from Rabbi Levitin.

MOSHIACH SEUDAH

Thursday, April 16

6:30 p.m.

Experience this inspiring "third Seder," acknowledging Moshiach's spirit in the last minutes of Passover. Enjoy dinner, Shmurah Matzah and four cups of wine along with songs and soulful stories.

MATZAH IN THE AISLES OF PUBLIX

Thursday, March 26 &

Stop by for a box of Shmura Matzah, the handmade traditional matzah eaten at both night Seders, a gift from The Chabad House to you. On display for you to sample is a variety of dips with matzah crackers of many flavors. Find everything you need to have a meaningful Passover.

SHAVUOS ALL-NIGHT LEARNING

Thursday, May 28

11:00 p.m.

When G-d came to give the Torah to the Jewish people in the early morning, He found them sleeping. To rectify this lapse, on Shavuos night, we conduct an all-night vigil dedicated to Torah learning and preparation for receiving the Torah anew the next morning.

TEN COMMANDMENTS AND DAIRY FEST

Friday, May 29

12:00 noon

On Shavuos, we renew our acceptance of G-d's gift, and G-d "re-gives" the Torah. One of the customs of the holiday is eating a dairy meal following the reading of the Ten Commandments. A Jew is sustained by Torah just as a baby is sustained by its mother's milk.

Every year since, the acting president has designated the anniversary of the Rebbe's birth as a day dedicated to educational awareness. In honor of the 11th of Nissan, the anniversary of the Rebbe's birth, invite a friend to Shabbos and better understand the Rebbe's directive of a Moment of Silence in schools.

ROSH CHODESH SOCIETY

PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM REBBETZIN HINDEL LEVITIN

I was about nine years old when I witnessed the scene, one of dozens of times. I managed to get to the front! My face pressed hard against the glass window, partly because I wanted to see the scene below, but also because of the sheer volume of women and girls behind me, the crowd pressing me forward. Thousands of them, and they too wanted to see. Our eyes were glued to the Chabad Lubavitcher Rebbe standing far in front of us at the podium in 770, the Brooklyn synagogue. Interspersed with songs from the Chassidim, he was talking to us earnestly about the teachings of the Torah.

In that moment, being in the presence of the Rebbe, I felt a deep sense of belonging. Yes, I belonged to a loving family. Yes, I belonged to a close-knit community. But the Rebbe widened that circle of belonging: I belonged to the entire Jewish people, and they to me.

As I grew older, the Rebbe inspired me with his vision of a united Jewish world, where that circle of belonging was not just something we felt, but actively experienced: From an Israeli backpacker in Thailand who found a hot meal and a warm welcome at Chabad, to a family in Texas provided with clothing and shelter from Chabad during a flood, to a man, woman, or entire family in any of the 50 states and many other places in the world that automatically has a place to pray and feel welcome during the High Holidays, to you, my dear women friends in Palm Beach, who have changed my life with your friendship, your probing questions, your perception of ancient Jewish ideas being examined sometimes for the first time, and most importantly, your never-ending quest to grow spiritually.

We belong to one another, we are family! And it is all thanks to the Rebbe who inspired us to open the doors of The Chabad House 13 years ago. It was the Rebbe who brought me to you.

I'd like to invite you now to our new Rosh Chodesh Society course called Insight: Infused with Wisdom of the Lubavitcher Rebbe. I would like to share with you what I learned from the Rebbe throughout my life. This seven-lesson course explores the Rebbe's broad view of the world at large, of our personal failures and successes, of the feminine role, current trends and events, and more. Because sight is seeing what is, but Insight is seeing what could be. Please visit palmbeachjewish.com/rcs to join me on this exciting journey.

I trust you won't be disappointed.

The Tattooist of Auschwitz by Heather Morris
Wednesday, December 11, 1:30 p.m. | King Library

In April 1942, Lale Sokolov, a Slovakian Jew, is forcibly transported to the concentration camps at Auschwitz-Birkenau. A vivid, harrowing, and ultimately hopeful re-creation of Lale Sokolov's experiences as the man who tattooed the arms of thousands of prisoners with what would become one of the most potent symbols of the Holocaust, The Tattooist of Auschwitz is also a testament to the endurance of love and humanity under the darkest possible conditions.

The Two-Family House by Lynda Cohen Loigman
Wednesday, February 12, 1:30 p.m. | King Library

Brooklyn, 1947: In the midst of a blizzard, in a two-family brownstone, two babies are born, minutes apart. The mothers are sisters-in-law raising their families side by side. Rose and Helen share a bond forged before and during that dramatic winter night. With one misguided choice and one moment of tragedy, heartbreak wars with happiness and almost, but not quite, wins. Moving and evocative, The Two-Family House is a heart-wrenching, gripping multigenerational story, woven around the deepest of secrets.
