Dear Friend,

Life has become unpredictable, but some things are unchanged. Like Jewish women lighting Shabbos candles 18 minutes before sunset every Friday, a tradition observed for thousands of generations. Like studying Torah at palmbeachjewish.com/zoom. Like giving Tzedakah, the very foundation of who we are. Like reaching out to give time and attention to someone who needs our help, or maybe just a listening ear. The Lubavitcher Rebbe taught us to seek out mitzvos like these every waking moment of our lives. Even, and maybe especially, when life seems otherwise unsettled.

While so much fizzles out, Judaism is alive!

The calendar you are holding includes everything you need to live Jewishly on Palm Beach, from Jewish holidays to candle-lighting times and more. Use it as a simple reference or hang it up and add your personal schedule to it.

When quarantine began, The Chabad House, a full-service synagogue that brings opportunities for everyone to connect with G-d, went into high gear, preparing Shabbos-to-go packages every Friday; Seder-to-go kits before Passover; a Lag B'Omer drive-thru BBQ; Shavuos-to-go kits; and outdoor Rosh Hashanah Shofar Blowing at several locations, including the Worth Avenue Clock Tower, so that no Jew is left behind. No matter the weather. No matter the season. Because Chabad concerns itself with the totality of Jewish life, spiritual and physical.

May the world experience the healing we desperately need with the coming of Moshiach now!

Warmly,
Rabbi Zalman Levitin
Spiritual leader of The Chabad House

FAMILY

Judaism is a family-centered religion. On Shabbos and holidays, enjoy festive dinners with children, grandchildren, cousins, aunts and uncles, and gather in the synagogue with your communal family to forge an unshakeable bond with G-d and each other.

GRATITUDE

Judaism teaches us to pray for the peace and well-being of our government and city officials because without them the community crumbles. Our firefighters and police officers are part of the fabric of society.

G-D's GIFT

In today's world that is defined by change, we are blessed to have the Torah that is unchanging. Each letter, each word, each verse has remained exactly the same for 3,300 years.

TREE

Judaism teaches that man is like a tree of the field. A tree has roots that keep it grounded in all kinds of weather. When a Jew lives against a backdrop of faith, these roots, too, keep him rooted and surviving through all the seasons of life.
