IT'S YOUR TORAH LEARN IT LOVE IT LIVE IT

You know who you are and what you want to do. You know who your friends are. But, what about the One you can't see? Is He part of your life? Should He be? Where can you go to find out?

That's why we've assembled a collection of options for you right here.

So no matter what you need - from a Shabbat service to a Jewish children's program - or if all you want to do is hear the shofar on Rosh Hashanah or sit in on an inspiring lecture or celebrate on Chanukah or join a traditional Pesach Seder - finding it as effortless as turning the page.

WHAT IS CHABAD?

Dear Friend,

As the exciting new season rolls in, we are delighted to deliver our all-new program guide for this year including a dazzling array of holiday programs, lectures, workshops and events custom-made for you and our ever-expanding synagogue services and lively community Shabbat.

When creating the Chabad-Lubavitch movement that you see today (4,000 emissaries all over the world, and counting), the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of righteous memory, was motivated by his profound love for every Jew. Chabad Houses all over the world follow the central teaching of the Lubavitcher Rebbe- that all Jews are really one soul. This is evident at any one of our programs. At Chabad of Northern Palm Beach Island, you will always meet Jews from all walks of life. Because we don't see labels, we see souls.

You can be a part of our good work by supporting Chabad of Northern Palm Beach Island; a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Your contribution goes a long way toward establishing a strong, proud Jewish community in Palm Beach where no Jew is forgotten.

Our online presence is strong and updated regularly at palmbeachjewish.com so you can easily find services and programs that you may not see in these pages. Or call us at 561-659-3884.

We look forward to greeting you.

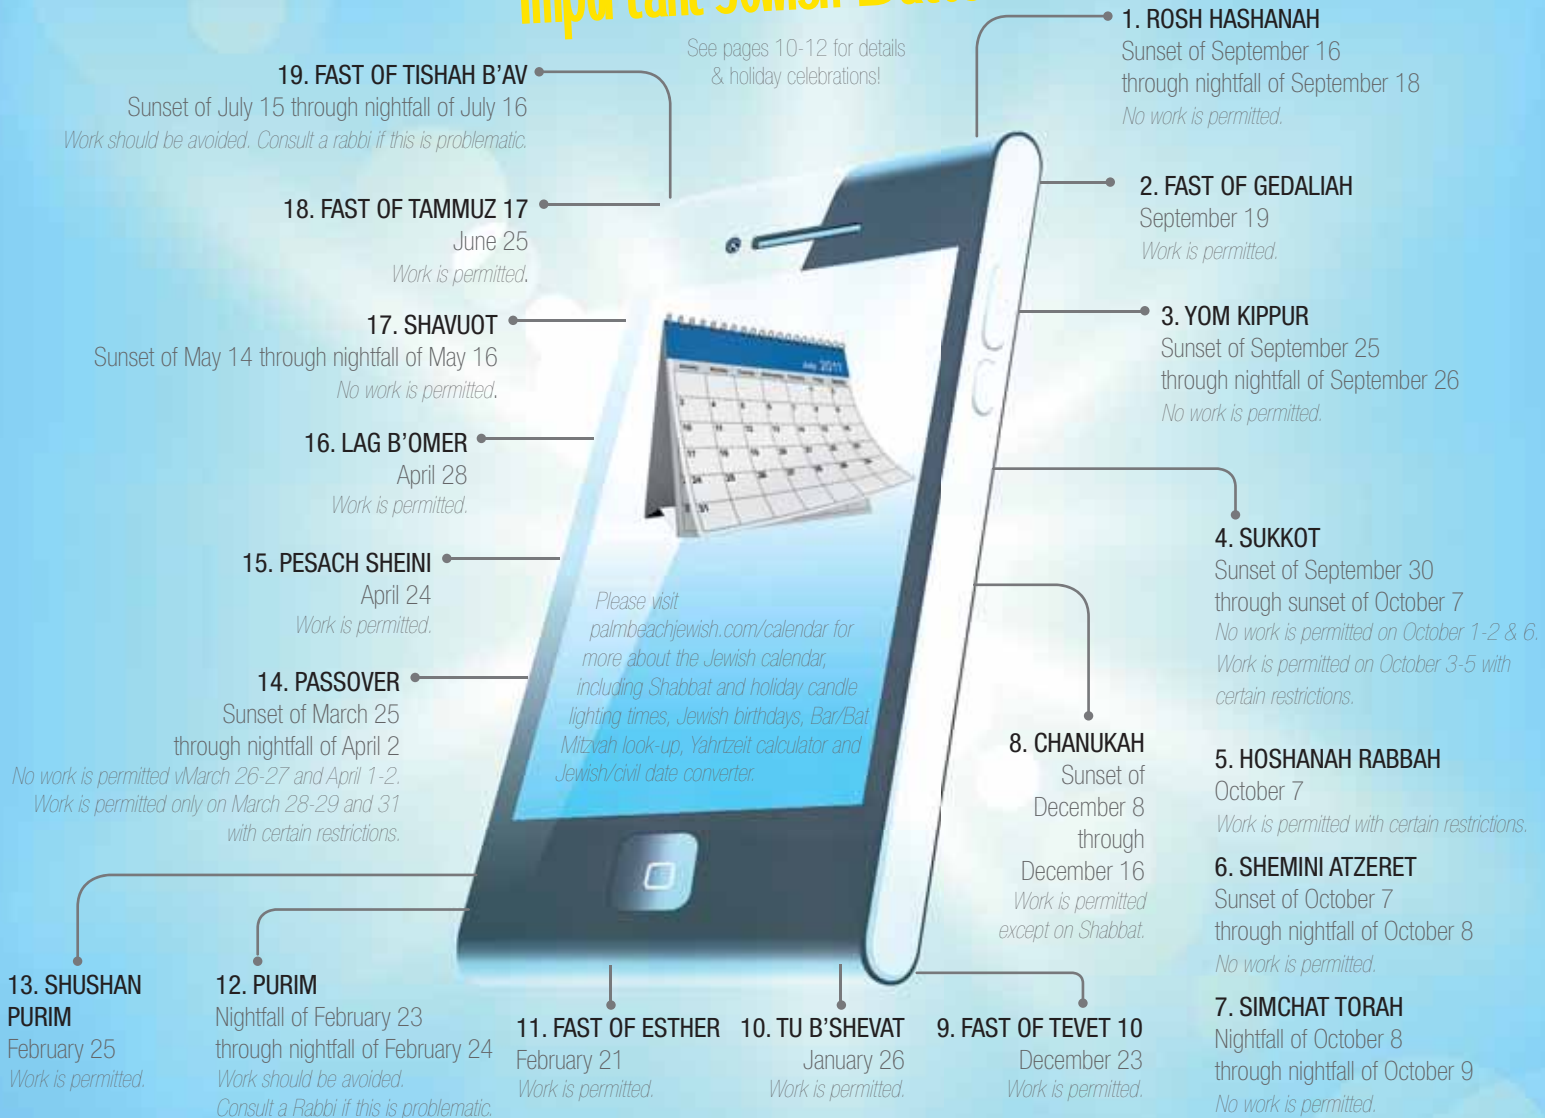

Wishing you and yours a sweet and prosperous New Year!

Warmly,
Rabbi Zalman Levitin

ROSH HASHANAH OF CHASSIDUS FARBRENGEN

SATURDAY NIGHT, DECEMBER 1 | 7:15 PM

Farbrengen: (Yiddish) (a) an assemblage addressed by a Rebbe; (b) an informal gathering of Chassidim characterized by soulful singing, sharing, and discussion.

We welcome singer and guitarist Rabbi Ruvy New of Chabad of East Boca who will lead our community farbrengen celebrating Yud Tes Kislev, the 19th day of Kislev on the Jewish calendar, the date that the founder of Chabad Chassidism, Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi (1745–1812), was freed from his imprisonment in czarist Russia. The nineteenth of Kislev, therefore, also marks the Rosh Hashanah- the birth- of Chassidism: the point at which it was allowed to emerge from the womb of mysticism into the light of day, where it has grown and developed into an integral part of Torah and Jewish life. Festive dinner will be served. Kindly reserve. Suggested donation: $18

CHANUKAH ON WORTH

MORE CHANUKAH ON WORTH

Chanukah is, after all, eight days long, why limit ourselves to a single party?

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11 | 5:00 PM

Come to A.B. Levy Antiques for more donuts, latkes, and Chanukah joy in the most beautiful surroundings. Light your own menorah and sing along with A.B. Levy's exquisite piano.

TU B'SHEVAT SEDER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 26 | 12:30 PM

Tu B'Shevat, the 15th of Shevat on the Jewish calendar, marks the New Year for Trees. This is the season in which the earliest-blooming trees in the Land of Israel emerge from their winter sleep and begin a new fruit-bearing cycle. We mark the day by eating fruit, particularly from the kinds singled out by the Torah in its praise of the bounty of the Holy Land: grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives and dates. On this day we remember that "man is a tree of the field" (Deuteronomy 20:19) and reflect on the lessons we can derive from that. Following Shabbat morning services, join us for an enhanced kiddush lunch. Kindly reserve.

PURIM NIGHT GRAGGER CONTEST

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23 | 7:15 PM

It is a mitzvah to hear the Megillah twice on Purim. Once at night, when according to the Jewish calendar the new day begins, and once on Purim day. Rejoice on Purim night with Megillah reading and a bagels and lox buffet, followed by the grand Gragger Contest! Come with your most creative gragger (noisemaker), be it your alarm clock, pots and pans, or your two feet (you probably won't win), and win a prize. Kindly reserve.

PURIM IN THE SHTETL

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24 | 5:00 PM

Oy kinderlach, vus vilstu fuhr mir? What, you want some good Jewish music? Why didn't you just ask? At Chabad's Purim party, following the reading of the Megillah, enjoy the lively klezmer band, a feast of good ole' shtetl cooking just like your bubbeh used to make. Then use a feather and ink to inscribe your name on parchment and pose for a photo in the shtetl. Participate in the four mitzvot of Purim.

Dress up like you're right out of the shtetl (think Fiddler on the Roof) and enter a raffle to win a prize. Kindly reserve. $36 per adult, $15 per child (2-12)

LAG B'OMER BBQ

SUNDAY, APRIL 28 | 4:00 PM

Lag B'Omer is the anniversary of the passing of the great sage of the Talmud, Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, author of the Zohar (fundamental text of Kabbalah). Minutes before his death, Rabbi Shimon instructed his disciples not to mourn him but to mark the date of his passing as a day of joy, honoring and celebrating his accomplishments.

Also, in the weeks between Passover and Shavuot, a plague (brought on by lack of respect for one another) raged amongst the disciples of the great sage Rabbi Akiva and on Lag B'Omer, the plague ended. To celebrate, join us for an outdoor barbecue sizzling with great food, crafts and entertainment. Kindly reserve.

$10 per person, $25 per family

SHAVUOT

Spiritually speaking, milk is to a child as Torah is to a Jew. It gives life. Practically speaking, when the Jews received the Torah, they had not yet studied the laws of separating milk and meat, so to be safe they ate only dairy. Therefore, when we celebrate the receiving of the Torah it is customary to eat dairy. Join us for the reading of the Ten Commandments and a melt-in-your-mouth dairy meal complete with blintzes, cheesecake, ice cream and more! Kindly reserve.

GIMMEL TAMMUZ FARBRENGEN

FRIDAY, JUNE 7 | 7:00 PM

For more than two centuries, Chassidim have been participating in farbrengens offering participants the opportunity to express their souls' burdens, and share insights, practical ideas and uplifting stories. Try it. Join Rabbi Levitin at a Chassidic farbrengen and see how it will profoundly affect your life. After our regular Shabbat dinner, stay and sing Chassidic melodies and drink l'chaims in honor of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson, of righteous memory, who passed away on Gimmel Tammuz, the 3rd of Tammuz (June 12, 1994) on the Jewish calendar. Learn about the Rebbe's life, his teachings, and what he expects from us. Kindly reserve.

MEZUZOT

The mezuzah is a parchment scroll, on which the Shema, a Biblical passage declaring the Oneness of G-d, is handwritten by an expert scribe. A mezuzah mounted on the doorpost designates the home as Jewish and is a symbol of G-d's watchful care. There's no better time than today to purchase a mezuzah for your door! Or, get your mezuzah checked as is required twice every seven years to see if they have been affected by adverse weather conditions.

Large scroll- $40 | Small scroll- $45

SHMURAH MATZAH

Shmurah means watched because the ingredients (flour and water) are watched from the moment of harvesting and drawing and throughout the baking process. This careful guarding gives the Shmurah Matzah an added infusion of faith and sanctity. Shmurah Matzot are similar to the Matzot that were baked by the Children of Israel as they left Egypt. It is thus fitting to use Shmurah Matzah on each of the two Seder nights.

Regular Matzah- $20 per pound

Whole Wheat Matzah- $25 per pound

Bedikat Chametz kit- $5 per kit

This year, own your personal Lulav and Etrog from Israel! Every set includes one Lulav (with Arovot and Hadasim) and one Etrog.

It is a mitzvah for men to don Tefillin daily except Shabbat.

START-UP NATION: THE STORY OF ISRAEL'S ECONOMIC MIRACLE

by Dan Senor and Saul Singer

Start-Up Nation addresses the trillion dollar question: How is it that Israel—surrounded by enemies, in a constant state of war since its founding, with no natural resources—produces more start-up companies than large, peaceful, and stable nations like Japan, China, India, Korea, Canada and the UK? As America reboots its own economy and can-do spirit, there's never been a better time to look at this remarkable and resilient nation for some impressive, surprising clues.

DEBUNKING THE MYTHS

SECRETS OF THE CHASSIDIC LIFESTYLE, UNCOVERED

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2012

Religious people want sons instead of daughters.

Women are forbidden to study Kabbalah and Talmud.

You can't look good if you dress modestly.

Nobody can raise that many children properly.

Ultra-Orthodox marriages are arranged, so there's no love. It is racist to say that Jews are G-d's chosen people. Jews should be forgiving of people who sin; after all, we all sin sometimes. Truth or myth? Find out at last.

Tall and athletic, Rische Deitsch leaves a trail of stunned women behind her as she effortlessly keeps a perfect home and raises beautifully groomed children and grandchildren. She cooks three-course dinners every night while reciting Psalms from memory and practicing the multiplication tables with her ten-year-old granddaughter. She volunteers at the local nursing home, hospital, and animal shelter, and the floor under her refrigerator is spotless.

Nah, not true. I'm 53 years old, short, and wondering when I gained ten pounds. I have served as editor of the Chabad International women's magazine for 30 years. I am a homebirth activist with a goal of educating women to be their own best advocates and avoid needless suffering. I am the mother of Hindel Levitin and I only clean under my fridge once a year, right before Passover.

NEXT YEAR IN JERUSALEM

SEVEN REASONS TO SUPPORT ISRAEL

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 2013

Many people love their homes and their countries, but once they relocate, they form new allegiances. They cannot trace the ancestral homeland that their families claimed two millennia ago, nor do they continue to long for those places. Yet no matter where they have lived, Jews have continued to dream about the Land of Israel. Why? Enjoy a more meaningful Passover and find out why Israel is different, from popular radio personality Joyce Kaufman.

Joyce Kaufman hosts her own talk show on 850 AM every weekday from 10 am to 1 pm. Joyce is an activist who passionately supports Israel, war veterans and other worthy causes. Born in New York City to a Jewish father and Puerto Rican mother, she earned her degree in special education and a Master's in social work. She worked with schizophrenic adults as well as autistic children and in 1978, moved to Florida where she raised her children and has been doing radio with phenomenal success for 21 years.
