RABBI ZALMAN LEVITIN

Rabbi Zalman, born and raised in New Haven, Connecticut, studied in Yeshivas in Brooklyn, NY; Brunoy, France; and Israel. He received his Rabbinical Ordination from the Central Chabad-Lubavitch Yeshiva. Rabbi Zalman has directed overnight camps of over 300 children. As a young rabbi, he became known for his outstanding leadership qualities, combined with compassion and patience. He has travelled on Chabad tours of duty all over the country and in the Ukraine, Russia and Germany. Known for his warm and enthusiastic personality, he has led services, taught educational seminars and brought the love of Torah to Jews living in the Caribbean Islands; Reno, Nevada; Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Chelyabinsk, Russia.

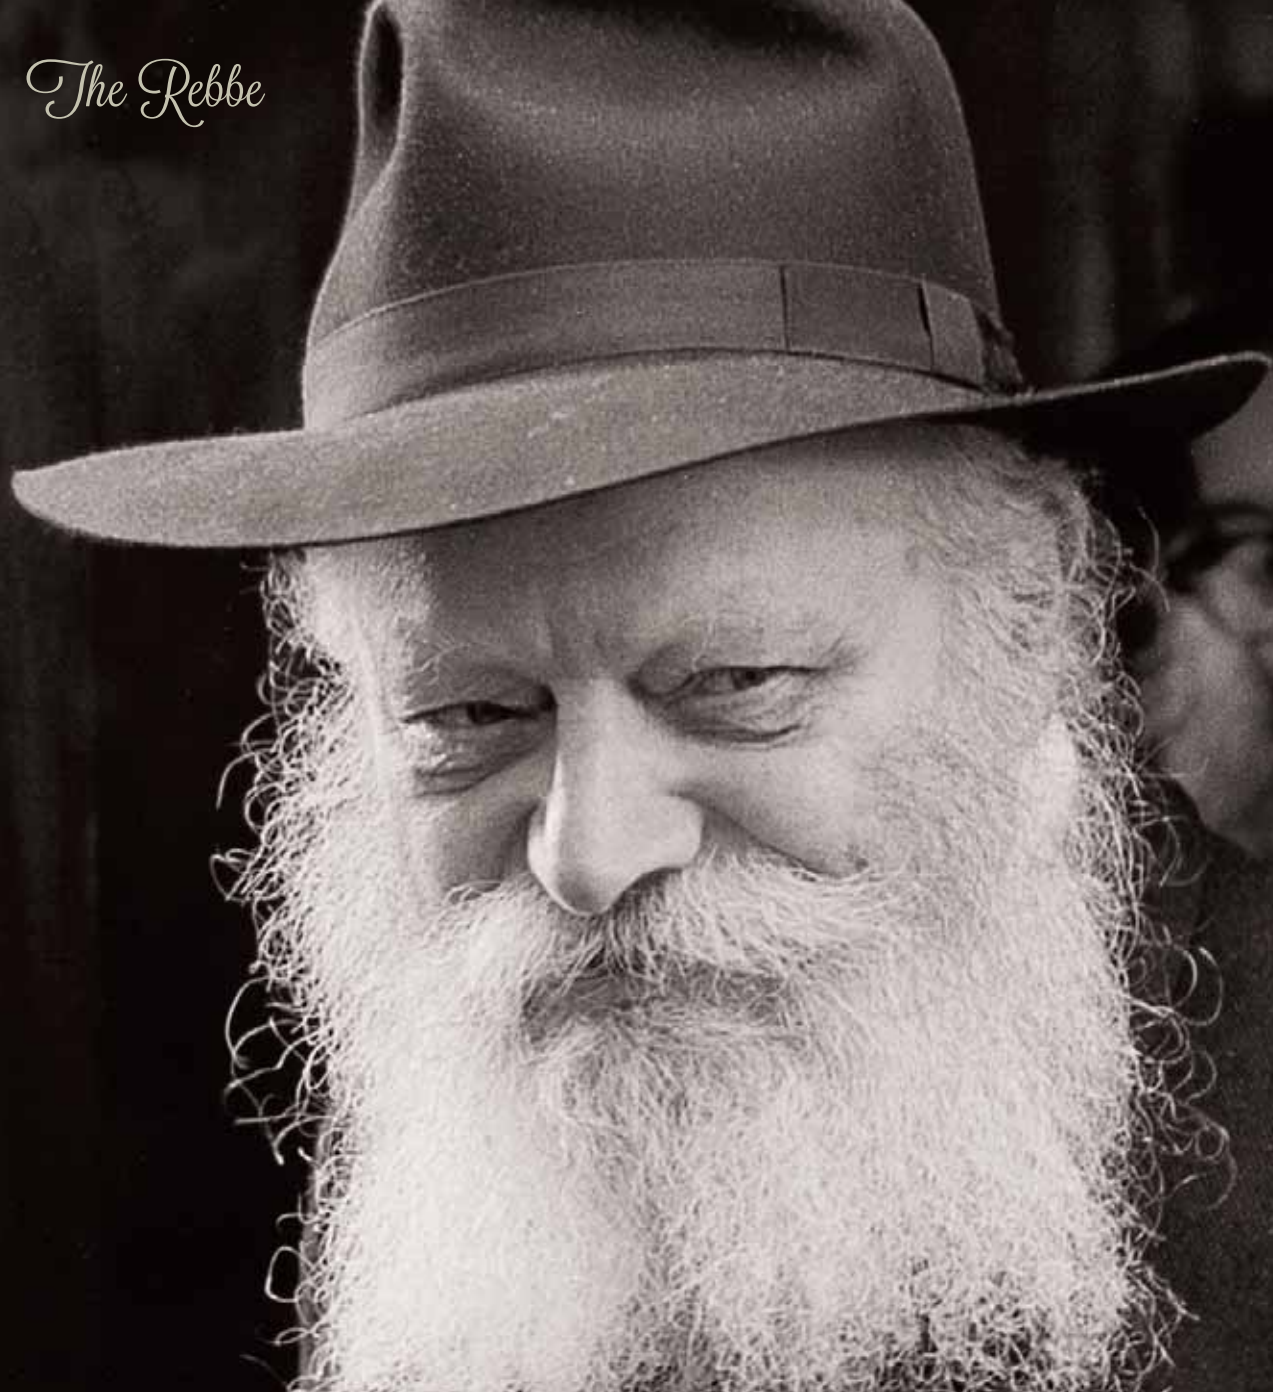

REBBETZIN HINDEL LEVITIN

For Hindel, growing up next to Chabad Headquarters in Brooklyn, NY, her passion to inspire and reach out is just who she is. After graduating high school with honors, she received her teaching certification. She has years of experience as a successful teacher, music and drama instructor and as program director and mentor for hundreds of high school students. With her loving character and down-to-earth approach, Hindel has brought out the joy of a Torah life to schools and camps all over the country and in Lugansk, Ukraine, and Melbourne, Australia.

Proud parents of four girls and a boy, the Levitins form a powerful team bringing warmth, happiness and authentic Torah to the people around them. With their shining personalities and non-judgmental approach, they have touched the lives of many and look forward to welcoming many more.

The Rebbe

DEAR FRIEND,

What did the Lubavitcher Rebbe do, and why did he do it?

When creating the Chabad-Lubavitch movement that you see today (4,000 emissaries all over the world, and counting), the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of righteous memory, was motivated by his profound love for every Jew. Chabad Houses all over the world follow his teaching; that all Jews are part of one family.

We're here in Palm Beach because of this unshakable love for Am Yisroel.

At Chabad of Northern Palm Beach Island, you will always meet Jews from all walks of life. Because we don't see labels, we see souls.

Our commitment is evident in these pages of exciting and diverse programming. I trust you'll find something that fits you as a family, as an individual, as a Jew. In addition, we assist hundreds of tourists and visitors to Palm Beach each year.

Our online presence is strong and updated regularly at palmbeachjewish.com so you can easily find what you may not see in these pages or to reserve for any programs listed here. Or stop by The Chabad House or just call 561-659-3884; no person or detail is too small or insignificant.

Looking forward to greeting you,

–Rabbi Zalman Levitin

GIMMEL TAMMUZ

Shabbat, June 12-13
3 Tammuz:
A Tribute to the Rebbe

In honor of his passing on the 3rd of Tammuz (June 12, 1994), stay after Shabbat dinner, and sing Chassidic melodies, drink l'chaim, enjoy a "shtickl farbaisn" and learn about the Rebbe's life, his teachings, and what he expects from us.

The Rebbe issued a call to every Jew: Even if you are not fully committed to a Torah life, do something. Begin with any mitzvah, large or small! Its value will not be diminished by the fact that there may be others which you are not prepared to do.

High Holidays

Services with Chabad are designed to make everyone feel welcome. The prayers are lively, engaging and inclusive- spiced with familiar tunes and insightful explanations throughout- allowing all congregants to connect with G-d.

At Chabad, we don't require a ticket for services, because every Jew without exception is welcome into shul. Chabad depends heavily on New Year donations to cover its annual budget providing a full schedule of programs that make a difference in the lives of our Jewish community. Your sponsorship is deeply appreciated.

Tourists

VISITING THE ISLAND OF PALM BEACH? WELCOME!

We look forward to catering to your needs.

The Rebbe taught us that no matter where a Jew goes, s/he should have a welcoming place to meet, socialize, learn Torah and pray together with fellow Jews. To that end, Chabad of Northern Palm Beach Island oversees an ever-expanding range of Jewish activities and invites you to partake in all programs. Whether you are staying at the Breakers, Brazilian Court, Chesterfield, Colony or anyplace else, contact us for questions on how to live Jewishly in our town.

If you are coming to town to see any of the specialists at Good Samaritan Hospital or St. Mary's Hospital, please let us know so we can make your stay a little easier (apartments, transportation to and from hospitals, kosher meals, etc). May G-d bless you with a complete and immediate recovery!

Check out our online tourist guide. The mini-site is complete with information on Shabbat dinner, discounted accommodations, local attractions, Zmanim and more, at palmbeachjewish.com/tourist.

Shabbatons at Chabad

SOPHIE HUBER

Shabbat, February 27-28

Once upon a time there was a YouTube video called "Is It Shabbot Yet?" Listen to the story of the power of one small child on one Jewish soul.

Meet Princeton University Graduate Sophie Huber.

CHAZZAN KLEIN

Shabbat, March 13-14

Chazzan Hershy Klein was born in Ginsberg, Germany. His family moved to Montreal, Canada when he was three months old. From the time he was able to sing his aleph bais, he sang with his father who was a loved and cherished Chazzan of the community. He fast became a wonder child and performed in a concert at the Waldorf Astoria. He married and settled in Brooklyn, where for 20 years he was the beloved Chazzan at Anshei Sfard in Boro Park, Brooklyn. He currently resides in West Palm Beach with his wife Chanie.

CANTOR LEBOVICS

Shabbat, May 15-16

Rabbi Cantor Yossi Lebovics studied music and the cantorial art under Cantor David Bagley and Mr. Jonathan White. He more recently sang the national anthem at the Miami Heat. Since 2001 he serves as the Chazan of the Synagogue of Inverrary in Florida and leads the services in S. Paulo, Brazil each year during High Holidays. From childhood, Cantor Yossi Lebovics has been inspiring audiences with his natural warmth and his singing and most recently his young sons Mendel, Sholom, Dovid, Eli, Nissy and Shmuly are doing the same.

Palm Beach Torah Institute

PALM BEACH TORAH INSTITUTE

The Palm Beach Torah Institute is dedicated to providing a thorough Jewish education to the community. No prior knowledge is required for any courses.

“Torah study every day is crucial to life itself. This applies not only to the soul of the one studying but also to the souls of his family. For then, the atmosphere of the home becomes an atmosphere of Torah and piety.”

– The Lubavitcher Rebbe

JEWS AND THANKSGIVING

With Rabbi Pinchas Taylor

Monday, November 24 | 7:00 PM

Were there Jews on the Mayflower? Join Rabbi Taylor in this fascinating lecture on the history of Thanksgiving, the participation of Jews, and lessons we can derive from it.

Rabbi Taylor is a sought-after speaker because of his ability to captivate the audience as he presents the material with humor, and throughness. He is Chabad of Plantation’s Director of Adult Education and Outreach, a member of Broward County Hospice, and runs programs for Jews in addiction recovery.

Dedication

In loving memory of Nosson Deitsch, beloved cousin of
Rabbi Zalman and Hindel.

Nosson was tragically taken from us at the age of 21.
With his great sense of humor and passion for Torah study
and helping others,
he brought joy
wherever he went.

THANK YOU FOR BEING SUCH A PAIN

With Dr. Mark Rosen

Sunday, January 11 | 7:00 PM

If the fundamental purpose of the Torah is to teach us about our relationship with G-d and our relationships with others, then why does it contain so many stories of flawed people who do terrible things and make each other unhappy? Can holiness be found in heartbreak?

Mark I. Rosen, Ph.D. is the author of Thank You for Being Such a Pain: Spiritual Guidance for Dealing with Difficult People. He currently serves as an Associate Professor in the Hornstein Jewish Professional Leadership Program at Brandeis University in Waltham, Massachusetts.

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL EVENING

With Survivor Alex Gross

Thursday, May 28 | 7:00 PM

Don't miss the opportunity to meet survivor Alex Gross. His peaceful, happy childhood in Hungary was soon disrupted when he was deported to Auschwitz. After liberation, Mr. Gross reunites with his siblings in Prague, but also has to face much trauma and loss. He finally makes his way to America where he becomes a successful business and family man. Tragedy soon follows, however, with the loss of his teenage son and the murder of his first wife. In spite of this, Alex Gross endures, revealing the depths of his faith, courage and honor.

YUD TES KISLEV BANQUET

Wednesday, December 10 | 7:00 PM

On the 19th day of Kislev, founder of the Chabad movement, Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi (1745–1812), was freed from his imprisonment in czarist Russia. The date marks the birth of Chassidus.

Join a farbrengen and festive dinner with Rabbi Chay Amar, internationally renowned business and relationship skills presenter, author and sought-after personal advisor. For more than two centuries, Chassidim participate in such gatherings to lighten their souls' burdens, and share insights and practical ideas. A farbrengen can profoundly affect your life.

Rabbi Amar speaks five languages. He earned his degree in philosophy and languages at Aix-les-Bains University in France, and completed his Rabbinical studies in England and Israel.

PAINTING ZAIDY'S DREAM

by Miriam Karp

*Living with my GPS:
G-dly Protective Spirit:
Then and Now*

As a searching hippie, Mrs. Karp traveled through the west following "the divine spirit and flow" and a swinging pendulum. Listen to her share some crazy stories from her search, her changing understanding of what "living in the Oneness" means, and her insights on what she once thought: that marriage is domestic slavery; that her parents' wish that she marry Jewish was racist; and what she finally found in Jewish mysticism and feminism.
